DOM Lines - Bert Langley, Interim Director of Missions

Robert C. Loveless (1923-) wrote the words to the catchy little tune "Every Day With Jesus." Robert's sir name may have been "Loveless," but when it came to Jesus in his life it was "Love More." Warning: Don't read the following words if you know the tune. You will find them stuck in your mind for at least 2 to 3 days.

(Many of us have been singing those words or humming the tune for years):

Every day with Jesus
Is sweeter than the day before
Every day with Jesus
I love Him more and more.
Jesus saves and keeps me
And He's the one I'm waiting for
Every day with Jesus
Is sweeter than the day before.

What type of relationship do you have with Jesus? Does it keep getting sweeter than the day before? Does HE mean more to you today than all the past days? Are you waiting and looking for HIS return? Jesus is still the answer to life's needs and situations. It may be raining on your parade today, but in Jesus "Every day... is sweeter than the day before."

Satan and the diabolic world he has created will sap the joy out of your salvation and relationship with Christ. Jesus said, "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full ." (John 10:10) The Apostle Paul referred to Satan as a schemer in Ephesians chapter 6. Be on guard!

Counselor's Corner - Mary Langford, Counselor

This year as I went through my book page by page, I was struck by the number of funerals I have attended in the past twelve months. Week after week I saw the names of long-time friends, fellow church members and family members listed with the dates and times of their memorial services. I'm sure I went to more of these this past year than in any other year of my life.

I do not report this fact to be morbid. I'm glad to say that every one of those services was truly a celebration of a life lived in and for the Lord. I write this to share with you the lesson which is so clear to me after all these farewells: We must live each day to the fullest, because we do not know when it will be our last.

So the question each of us must answer is, " What does it mean for me to live life to the fullest?" Surely it would mean taking care of ourselves to the best of our ability, whether sick or well --- eating healthily, exercising regularly, resting adequately. I'm thinking it must include experiencing as many as possible of the wonders of God's creation on this earth. You will not be surprised when I say that the fullest life would surely give priority to the relationships which God has granted to us. That would mean reaching out to others, nurturing and encouraging, initiating reconciliation where needed, and much more.

Finally and most importantly, a full life is one lived each day seeking and doing God's will, absorbing His Word and being used by Him. Jesus said, " I am come that you might have life and have it more abundantly." (John 10:10)
